

doc. MUDr. Jozef Beňačka, PhD., MBA, MPH

Born in 1955, Faculty of Medicine, University of Bratislava 1981, outpatient cardiologist since 1990, private physician (cardiology, ultrasound) since 2005. PhD.: 2005, habilitation: 2020. From 2015 to 2020, head of the Internal Medicine Clinic, Trnava University Hospital, 20 years investigator in international clinical drug trials (phase III). Organizer of courses and congresses in diagnostic USG (from 2003 to date), member of the working groups of the Ministry of Health of the Slovak Republic for the list of procedures, education, certificates. Since 2004, assistant professor, and in 2007 - 2014 also director of the Institute of Physiotherapy, University of St. Cyril and Methodius in Trnava (today the Faculty of Health Sciences), at that time with the accreditation of other study programs, he lectured on internal propaedeutics, physical education medicine, internal medicine, healthcare organization, statistics. Since 2015, he has been an assistant professor at the University of Trnava in Trnava, for nursing, public health and LVM, he lectures on Internal Medicine, Dietetics, Gerontology.

Monographs:

Atlas of Color Flow Imaging (CD). Publisher: Esaote, Milano, 399 images, 2000.

Compendium of musculoskeletal ultrasound (60 pages, 2012), ISBN 978-80-8105-414-3

Practical sonography (210 pages, 2020), ISBN 978-80-89631-95-7

Duplex sonography of vessels (150 pages, 2020), ISBN 978-80-89631-96-4

Practical echocardiography (320 pages, 2021), ISBN 978-80-8229-003-8

Point of Care – urgent sonography (128 pages, 2022), ISBN 978-80-8229-018-2

Publications: 110 publications in domestic and foreign professional journals (from of which ADC 10)

Professional presentations at international and national congresses: More than 200 lectures, except Slovakia: Linz, Tours, Geneva, Lublin, Zagreb, Timisoara, Szeged, Prague, Brno, Olomouc.