

PhDr. Andrea Lajdová, PhD.

E-mail: andrea.lajdova@truni.sk

PhDr. Andrea Lajdová, PhD. has been working at the Department of Nursing at the Faculty of Nursing since 2006. She completed her studies in Pedagogy and Nursing in 1993 at the Faculty of Arts, University of Bratislava. Her teaching focuses on Professional Ethics and Communication, Education in Nursing, Nursing in Gynaecology and Obstetrics, Nursing in Internal Medicine, Research in Nursing and she leads students in the Thesis Seminar. From 1987-1988, she was in practice as a midwife (female nurse) in the obstetric ward. From 1989-2006, she worked at the Secondary School of Nursing as a teacher of vocational subjects. Her publications are mainly focused on nursing ethics, nursing education, nursing in gynaecology and obstetrics. She is a member of the editorial board of the journal Ošetrovateľské perspektivy (Institute of Non-Medical Health Studies at the Silesian University in Opava).