

Daria Rábarová, MD, PhD. – is responsible for management of the Clinic of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care of Faculty Hospital in Trnava and teacher at the Department of Nursing, Faculty of Health and Social work, Trnava University. She has specialization in tropical medicine and anesthesiology and intensive care medicine. She is mainly engaged in intensive care and care for critically ill patients. In 2004-2011 she worked in hospitals in Kenya, Uganda and Burundi and on the „House of Family“ project in Cambodia.

Born: 1980

Year of obtaining PhD.: 2006