

MUDr. Daria Rábarová, PhD.

E-mail: daria.rabarova@truni.sk

Works at the Department of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care Medicine of the University Hospital Trnava and the University of Trnava as the head of the clinic. She obtain specialization in Anesthesiology and Intensive Care Medicine and in Tropical Medicine. For several years, she worked as a doctor on humanitarian projects in Africa and Asia (Kenya, Uganda, Burundi, Cambodia, Haiti). She teaches first aid and resuscitation. In her daily work, she focuses mainly on patients in intensive care and the new challenges that this care brings.

Year of birth: 1980

Year of graduation: 2004

Year of obtaining PhD.: 2007

Most notable publications:

1. Masan J., Sramka M., Rabarova D.: The possibilities of using the effects of ozone therapy in neurology. Neuroendocrinology Letters, 2021, Vol.42, No.1, ISSN 0172-780X
2. Prnova J., Skvarkova Z., Javorova-Rihova Z., Rabarova D., Krsakova A, Sokolova J.: Healthcare-associated infections in COVID-19 patients in the Slovak Republic during the first year of the pandemic: a retrospective cohort study, Eurosurveillance, 2022
3. Markuskova L., Javorova Z., Fazekas T., Martinkovicova A., Havrisko M., Dingova D., Solavova M., Rabarova D.: Serum butyrylcholinesterase as a marker of COVID-19 mortality: Results of the monocentric prospective observational study, Chemico-Biological Interactions 381 (2023) 110557